Version	v1.0 Paid SMB Edition

Use this document as a client-ready policy baseline. Customize named roles, escalation paths, and references to internal standards, classifications, and regulatory obligations before approval.

Policy Overview

Purpose	Requires AI use cases to be reviewed before adoption, procurement, deployment, or material change, and establishes risk tiers, approval triggers, prohibited uses, and enhanced review criteria.
Scope	Applies to all new AI use cases, major changes to approved AI solutions, and any exceptions, including internally built and third-party AI capabilities.
Primary owner	AI Governance Lead
Audience	Business owners, project sponsors, AI requestors, procurement, IT, Security, Privacy, and Legal

Policy Statements

- All new AI use cases shall be submitted through the enterprise AI intake process before deployment, procurement, or broad internal release.
- Each use case shall be assigned a risk tier based on data sensitivity, decision impact, user population, autonomy, transparency needs, and vendor or technical dependencies.
- High-risk, sensitive, or regulated use cases shall require enhanced review and documented approvals from relevant control functions before go-live.
- Use cases involving employment, finance, legal, safety, health, minors, profiling, or high-impact customer decisions shall be presumed elevated risk unless documented otherwise.
- Material changes to approved AI systems, including new data sources, new actions, new integrations, or model/provider changes, shall trigger reassessment.
- Prohibited use cases shall not proceed without explicit executive approval and formal exception documentation.

Roles and Responsibilities

- Requestors submit new AI use cases and material changes before implementation or expansion.
- AI Governance Lead manages triage, risk tiering, approval routing, and exception handling.
- Reviewers from Security, Privacy, Legal, and the business participate based on risk level and use case type.
- Business owners may not deploy high-risk use cases until required approvals and safeguards are documented.
